WILL CURE RHEUMATISM.

Mr. Albert Crooker, the well-known drug-gist, and apothecary, of Springvale, Me., always advises every one troubled with Rheumatical to try VEGETINE.

READ HIS STATEMENT:

· Springvale, Me., Oct., 12, 1876.

Springvale, Me., Oct., 12, 1876.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:—

Dear Sir,—Fifteen years ago last fall I was taken sick with rheumatism, was unable to move until the next April. From that time until three years ago last fall, I suffered everything with rheumatism. Sometimes there would be weeks at a time that I could not step one step; these attacks were quite often. I suffered everything that a man could. Over three years ago last spring I commenced taking VEGETINE, and followed it up until I had taken seven bottles; have had no rheumatism since that time. I always advice every one that is troubled with rheumatism to try VEGETINE, and not suffer for years as I have done. This statement is gratuitous as far as Mr. Stevens is concerned.

Yours, etc.,

E E E E E E HAS ENTIRELY CURED ME.

Boston, Oct, 1870. Dear Sir, —My daughter, after having a severe attack of Whooping Cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend she tried the VEGETINE, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health.

I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism.

I have taken several bottles of the VEGETINE for this complaint, and am happy to say it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the VEGETINE to others with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take and I can cheerfully James Morse, 361 Athens Street. recommend it.

RHEUMATISM IS A DISEASE OF THE BLOOD.

BLOOD.

The blood in this disease, is found to contain an excess of fibrin. VEGETINE acts by converting the blood from its diseased condition to a healthy circulation. VEGETINE regulates the bowels which is very important in this complaint. One bottle of Vegetine will give relief; but, to effect a permanent cure, it must be taken regularly, and may take several bottles, especially in cases of long standing. VEGETINE is sold by all druggists. Try it and your verdict will be the same as that of thousands before you, who say, "In ever found so much relief as from the use of VEGETINE," which is composed exclusively of Barks, Roots and Herbs.

"VEGETINE," says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the Laboratory, and con-vinced myself of its genuine merit. It is pre-pared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results." E E E E

NOTHING EQUAL TO IT.

South Salein, Mass., Nov. 11, 1876. Mr. H. E. Stevens. Dear Sir : I have been troubled with Scrofula, Canker and Liver Complaint for three years. Nothing ever did ma any good unti I commenced using the Vegetine. I am now getting along first rate, and still using the Vegetine. I consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. Can heartily recommend it to overybody. Yours truly,

Mrs. Lizzie M. Packard.

Three months.....

Dr. Talmage's Last Sunday's Sermon. He chose his text from Genesis, i., 5-"And the darkness he called night." Two grand divisions of time, said Mr. Talmage-one of sualight the other of shadow. I have spoken to you of the first and second watches of the night. I speak now of the third—that is, from twelve to three o'clock. The thunder of the city has rolled from the air. Slight sounds now out the night with a distinctness that excites your attention. Solemn and stupendous is the third watch! There are respectable men abroad. The city missionary is going up to that court to take a scuttle of coal to a poor family. Men who are forced to toil into the midnight are hastening to their pillow. But the great multitudes are asleep. The lights are out in the dwellings. The street lamps, standing in a long line, reveal the silence and the slumber of the town. Stupendous thought! a great city at rest! Let the great host sleep; God's slumberless eye will watch. But there are thousands who will not sleep to night. Go up that dark court. Be careful or you will fall over the prostrate form of a drunkard lying on his own doorstep. Look about, lest you feel the garroter's hug. Look in through that broken pane. No bread, no light, no fire, no cover. They shiver in darkness. They begged, but got nothing. They had rather die than go to the almshouse. You say these are vicious poor. So much the more to be pitied. Their last light has gone out. They are in hell now. Where I have ten prayers for the innocent I have twenty for the guilty. The vicious poor have bad two shipwrecks—that of the body and that of the soul—wreck for time and wreck for eternity. Pass on through that alley. Open the door. It is not locked. They have nothing to lose. Strike a match and look—beastliness and rage! From the corner a wild face starts out of the straw and moves toward you just as your light goes out. Strike another match. Here is a little babe. Not like those beautiful children presented this morning for baptism. It never smiled; it never will smile. Strike another mateb. The face of that young women is braised and gashed now. No hope has dawned on that soul for years; hope never will dawn on it. The match as gone cut, Light in not again, for it would seem to be a mockery. Passout and on. There are thousands of such abodes in our cities. An awful gloomy an overwhelming picture is the city in the third watch. After midnight crime does its chief work. During the daytime the villains lounge about, part of the time asleep a part awake, but when the third watch arrives they will rouse up with eye keen, mind acute, arms strucg and feet fleet to fly or pursue. Many of them have been brought up to the work. They began by picking boys' pockets, and now they are preparing to blast the gold vault of a bank. So long as the children of the street are neglected there will be no lack of desperadoes. In the third watch the gambling houses are in full blast. Stir up the fires! Bring on the drinks! Put up the stakes! Many a till will spring aloak. Gaming is making efforts to become respectable. A member of Congress played with a member elect and won $120,000. The old way of getting a fortune is so slow! Come, let's toss up to see who shall have it ! And so it goes on from the whecking wretches pitching pennies to the millionnaire gamblers in the stock market. Legislators tired of making laws take a respite in breaking them. Offi. cers of the court while away the time while the jury is out. There is no excuse for this crime. There are $7,000,000 annually lost in New York at the gaming table. The agents of these gaming tables are around our hotels. They ask a stranger if he would like to see the city and show him what they call the 'lions' and the "elephants.' (Laughter.) If a young man through morbid curiosity has seen the "lions" and the "elephants" he will never see heaven. Look cut for those men who move around botels with sleek hats and a patronizing air and are so unaccountably anxious about your entertainment. All they want is your money.

You are a fool if you can't see through it. Laughter.) In the third watch, also, drunkenness does ts worst. The drinking man will be respectable at eight o'clock, at nine he is talkative, at ten his tongue is thick, at eleven he blasphemes, at twelve his bat falls off, at one he falls to the floor asking for more drink. Drunkenness makes men mad. One of its victims came home one night and found his wife had died during his atsence. He went into the room where she had been prepared for the grave, shook her from the shroud and tossed the body out of the window. The land is soaked with sin. Something radical must be done. You do not see the worst. If Christian men and women would go forth among the wandering and the destitute they might make the darkest alley of the city kindle with the gladness of heaven. Do not think pieus counsels will stop the gnawing of empty stomachs or warm stockingless feet .-Take bread, raiment, medicine, as well as prayer. We want no such inapt work as that of the man who went into an hospital during the war and gave to a soldier who had had both his legs amputated a tract on the sin of dancing. | Laughter. | Generous, helpfal work would bring back thousands. I see them coming now. Cry up the news to heaven! Set all the bells aringing! Soread the banquet and keep the jubilee! -N. Y. Herald.
